

Danielle L. Burke
Senior Regulatory Analyst

973.889.4303
burke@porziopharma.com

DANIELLE L. BURKE is a Senior Regulatory Analyst for Porzio Pharmaceutical Services, LLC. Ms. Burke is a member of the core team responsible for developing and maintaining PPS products and services, including the Porzio Compliance Digest and Porzio Compliance Modules. She has developed a broad knowledge of the legislation and regulations related to the prescriptive authority of mid-level practitioners for legend and controlled substances, state disclosure requirements and wholesale distribution. Additionally, Ms. Burke shares responsibility for customized compliance projects, marketing endeavors and customer support for client product subscriptions.

Working in collaboration with PPS executives and managers, Ms. Burke has designed and implemented comprehensive customer service training for the PPS Regulatory Team. In this role, Ms. Burke shares responsibility for ensuring that Regulatory Assistants and Analysts are properly trained to assist new and existing customers with their navigation of the Porzio Compliance Digest.

Ms. Burke received a Bachelor of Science from Bloomsburg University and a certification from the Health Care Compliance Program of Seton Hall Law School.