ELIZABETH H. KIM is a Manager, Regulatory and Compliance Services, with Porzio Pharmaceutical Services, LLC. In this role, Ms. Kim collaborates with PPS other Managers, Directors, and Regulatory Analysts to develop, update and manage the content of PPS products and services. Ms. Kim is also an associate of Porzio, Bromberg & Newman P.C. and a member of the firm's Pharmaceutical Marketing and Sales Compliance Department.

In her capacity with the law firm, Ms. Kim counsels pharmaceutical, medical device and biotechnology companies on a variety of compliance-related issues, including federal and state fraud and abuse laws, FDA promotional regulations, industry standards regarding healthcare professional interactions, and sample compliance. Ms. Kim develops compliance programs for companies governing the sale and marketing of drugs and devices and the distribution of samples under federal and state law. She drafts agreements with vendors, consultants and other third parties, and reviews and evaluates promotional materials and marketing activities directed towards consumers and healthcare professionals. Additionally, she participates in distribution licensing projects and provides guidance to manufacturers and distributors with respect to general wholesale distribution and licensing requirements.

Ms. Kim received a J.D. from Rutgers School of Law – Newark, where she was a member of the Business Law Journal. She earned her M.S.W. in Clinical Practice from Columbia University School of Social Work and her B.A. in English and Spanish, magna cum laude, from Wellesley College.
