INGRID A. PELZER is a Quality Control Supervisor with Porzio Pharmaceutical Services, LLC. In this role, Ms. Pelzer works closely with the PPS Regulatory Team to validate the timeliness, accessibility and precision of PPS' products and services. Specifically, she reviews and revises PPS products and deliverables, and identifies and develops procedures to enhance the caliber and value of PPS' offerings. As a Quality Control Supervisor, Ms. Pelzer collaborates with PPS Directors and Managers to ensure that the organization remains attuned to the evolving needs of the life sciences industry.

Ms. Pelzer is part of the core team responsible for PPS personnel and project management. In collaboration with PPS Directors and Managers, she coordinates and conducts training for PPS Regulatory Analysts and Assistants, and assists with the management of regulatory team workloads. Ms. Pelzer is also involved in the creation and implementation of company protocols.

Ms. Pelzer received a J.D. from Seton Hall University School of Law. During her studies, she served as a member of the Seton Hall Interscholastic Moot Court Board and the Appellate Advocacy Moot Court Board and was honored as a recipient of the Justice Clifford Fellowship. Ms. Pelzer is a member of the New Jersey and New York State bars. She earned a Bachelor of Arts cum laude from Spelman College.
